

List of Privileges

1. I can go on social media or turn on the TV and see people of my race widely represented in a positive light.
2. When I go shopping on my own, I know that I won't be followed or harassed.
3. I can be sure that people will respectfully learn how to pronounce my name, and that it will not be a source of amusement because of how it sounds.
4. My hair is not seen as 'interesting' or 'strange'.
5. When I am told about our national heritage, I am shown that people of my race help make it what it is.
6. I can be sure that when national law or policy is created, people of my race will not be indirectly disadvantaged.
7. When I pay for goods or services, my skin colour won't make me appear financially unreliable.
8. I can do well in a challenging situation without being called a credit to my race.
9. I can swear, or dress in second-hand clothes, or not answer letters, without having people attribute these choices to the bad morals, the poverty, or the illiteracy of my race.
10. My intelligence is not questioned because of the way that I speak.
11. I will never be asked to speak for the people of my racial group.
12. I can choose almost any career path without considering the limitations that may be placed on me by others because of my race.
13. I am rarely stopped or questioned by authority figures, police or security personnel because I seemed 'suspicious' or 'aggressive' to them.
14. Any 'flesh-coloured', 'naked' or skin-coloured' product will more or less match my skin tone.
15. I can take a job or receive a promotion without having colleagues suspect I got it because of my race.
